The deposits are invested in such carefully selected bonds, mortgages and notes as they approve. Being established in 1867 it is therefore "FARMVILLE'S OLDEST AND STRONGEST BANK." During its forty-three years of conservative banking methods, its strength has been tested by all the financial panics during that time, and they have been successfully withstood. Our Market

Has been well sustained during the past week. We have had more tobacco than any week since our opening sale. Our prices have kept up remarkably well.

Air cured from $5.00 to $12.00.

Burleys from $6.00 to $14.

Dark tobacco from $4.00 to $12.00.

NEWS OF PRINCE EDWARD AND ADJOINING COUNTIES.

From Stoddert.

Dec. 20th.—Christmas week will be one of pleasure in this section. Commencing Friday with a "Sack Socials" then Christmas trees at the different churches, dinners in the different homes, dispensed with little socials for the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Blanton, from near Richmond, have been on a visit to their mother, Mrs. S. J. Blanton.

Prof. Grigg Elcan visited his sister last Friday.

Mrs. Eliza Palmore arrived Sunday to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Matheau Crute.

Mrs. Lewis Crawley paid Richmond a pleasant visit recently.

Miss Ida Agee and Mr. John Forbes will be married in the home of the bride's parents today at 2 o'clock, after which the bride and groom will leave for their future home in Appomattox.

From Eureka Mills.

Dec. 19th.—Mr. Terry Carden, of Phenix, spent Saturday night with his mother at the "Bachelors Inn."

Miss Anne Redd and Mrs. Martin have returned to their home at "Greenfield," accompanied by their brother-in-law, Mr. Miles Martin, of Richmond.

The many friends of Miss Mattie Watkins are sorry to hear of her illness.

Mr. Willie Chappell, of Richmond, is spending some time with his aunt, Mrs. J. A. Allen.

Messrs. Chas. Jennings and Calvin Deaner left Saturday for a visit to Rice.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dunnivant is reported quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Faris spent Sunday at the bride's old home.

Mr. J. B. Vaughan, accompanied by his wife, left last week for the Memorial Hospital, Richmond, where he will have a portion of his arm amputated.

Prospect.

Dec. 20th.—Mrs. Murrey Glenn and daughter are visiting relatives at Laurel, Md.

Miss Louise Brightwell, who has been very sick with diphtheria, is much better.

The high school here closed on the 2nd on account of diphtheria in the village, but as no new cases developed it was opened again on the 12th.

The Little Helpers' Society will have a Christmas tree at the high school building on the night of Dec. 21st.

Miss Annie Chick and Mr. Milton Wilkerson, both of this place, were married at 9 o'clock this morning at Olive Branch Methodist Church, Rev. J. O. Moss, officiating. The happy couple left on the 10 o'clock train for points in the North, such as Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. They have our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Since my last writing a dear friend and neighbor has gone to her home above. Mrs. Frances East died at the home of her son, Mr. Joe East, near here, in the 83rd year. She leaves a host of friends and relatives, besides numerous children and grandchildren to mourn their loss; but their loss will be her eternal gain. All was done for her during her sickness that loving hands could do, but the Lord saw fit to take her away. "Blessed are they that die in the Lord." She was buried at the Prospect Methodist cemetery. The family have our most heartfelt sympathy.

Mrs. Florence Young, of Roanoke, is visiting relatives here.

From Buckingham.

Dec. 19th.—The Dillwyn warehouse from the 1st to the 14th of December has sold one hundred and fifty thousand pounds of tobacco at an average price of $6.75 a hundred and when the quality and condition of the tobacco is taken into consideration this is thought to be a fair average price. Some few lots of very good leaf were sold for $11 and 12.50. Owing to unfavorable weather conditions and the excessive use of water the offerings have as a rule been in bad condition. Farmers have, however, continued to market a part of their crop to get money for Christmas spending, and it was difficult to keep on hand a supply of currency to cash the checks, and one day last week the bank and the merchants were hard pressed for the "circulating medium" to cash the checks, which were for small amounts, and the holders of them did not seem to think of depositing the amounts to their credit at the bank and check for the amounts they wanted to use at the time, but called for ready cash.

Mr. Davis, the buyer for the American Tobacco Company, is quite a young man, but he is on to his job, and the company is buying freely of the grades they require.

Mr. Rolfe Connor as administrator of Mr. Moore's estate is disposing of goods to the best possible advantage and at the same time the public is reaping the advantage of low prices for ready cash. I am reliably informed that Mr. Moore's insurance, which he carried at the time of his death, amounts to $10,000 and his widow, I am glad to say, will be well provided for after paying what his estate is liable for.

Messrs. Slively, Robert Eldridge, Carter and Kenney have all built, or are building, nice new houses at Dillwyn. Mr. Carter's house is exceptionally pretty and well ordered.

The high school at this place closed for the holidays on Friday, the 16th.

The Republicans have ousted one of their postmasters because he was too active in politics, but it seems that he was not too active in his opposition to the Democrats, but too active in opposing men and measures put forth by the G. O. P.

Postmaster Gregory has gone up higher, (up stairs.)

The Republican office holders in Buckingham are a very good lot of men.

A lot of turkeys and chickens were shipped by way of Dillwyn last week, and dressed turkeys are bringing 22 cents, the buyer paying the express.

I am told that a farmer bought a car load of corn on James River for $2.75 a barrel, and had it shipped to Dillwyn.

From Darlington Heights.

Dec. 20.—Our superintendent, Mr. P. Tu'ane Atkinson, and his friend, Mr. Melwaine, visited our school last week.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Ford is on the sick list again.

Mr. Herman Foster has returned to Mr. W. J. Foster's after visiting relatives in Bluefield, W. Va.

Miss Bessie Berkeley is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Eddie Carville.

Mr. Bruce Anderson, from Chatham, is visiting in the neighborhood.

We are sorry to say that Mr. and Mrs. Booker Hunt have left our neighborhood, and have gone to Georgia to live with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Oates.

Mr. James J. Overton is now at home on his Christmas vacation.

There will be a play and oyster supper given at the Darlington Heights high school, Wednesday night Dec. 28th, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The roll of honor is as follows:
Pearlie St. John, Addie Cooke, Della Gropp, Eva Gropp, Beulah St. John, Josie Whitehead, Charley Putney, Bernice Morris, Georgie Foster, Lillian Shorter, Trixie Morris, Hall Driskill, Anna Foster, V. M. Watson, Miss Olivia Dowdy and Mrs. Elmer Gilliam, teachers.
